

THE JUDY RAPER AWARD FOR LEADERSHIP

The Judy Raper Award for Leadership in Engineering is offered annually and is open to all female alumnae from the UNSW Faculty of Engineering, in recognition of their sustained and significant contribution through demonstrated leadership within the discipline/profession in Australia.

Effective leadership is characterised by passion and commitment, setting bold objectives and achieving results, and, most importantly, motivating and mobilising the talent of others for the benefit of the discipline/profession and the community at large.

Selection Criteria (1000 words in total)

1. Demonstrated track record of working with others to produce world-class outcomes that were only possible as a consequence of their high-quality leadership.
2. Demonstrated vision, passion and commitment to the advancement of their discipline, evident over time.
3. Demonstrated impact and application of their work.

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

Please read the following guidelines before you prepare your nomination.

1. Please provide full contact details for both yourself (Nominator) and your Nominee.
2. Self-nominations will not be accepted.
3. Please provide a brief statement addressing the relevant selection criteria – see above (maximum 1000 words in total).
4. Please provide the current Curriculum Vitae of the nominee - indicating year of graduation from UNSW (maximum 2 pages).
5. Please provide two (2) reference letters of support for the nominee. Referees should have direct knowledge of the achievements of the nominee. At least one letter must be external to the company/organisation/institution of the nominee. (Letters of support are limited to 1 page in length).
6. Nominations must be submitted electronically via the online form and received no later than 5pm AEST on Friday 10 July 2015.
7. Information provided by the nominators in relation to the UNSW Women in Engineering Awards (including photos), may be used by the Faculty/UNSW for promotional/publicity purposes. This may include, and is not restricted to, the information being used on websites, social media, printed material, advertisements, press releases etc. By submitting a nomination, nominators attest to the provided information being correct to the best of their knowledge, and free from any commercial-in-confidence or other limitations preventing disclosure to third parties.